EAGLEVAIL PAVILION GENERAL INFORMATION

TABLES AND CHAIRS INFORMATION:

Use of tables and chairs is included in the rental fee. There are:

- Twenty (20) 60” round tables which seat eight people with dinner settings, 10 in a conference setting.
- Ten (10) 6’ rectangular tables which seat eight people.
- Two Hundred (200) white folding chairs. You may use chairs inside the main room, on the Pavilion deck, or on the event lawn. Chairs must be brought inside at the end of the event.

The main room holds 150 comfortably or 200 with a buffet and no dance floor. Event lawn holds 200. All tables must remain inside the Pavilion or on the deck. No tables should be placed on the lawn or anywhere else outside the Pavilion/Pavilion deck. Lessee does NOT put tables and chairs away after the celebration. Lessee is responsible for setting out tables and chairs at the start of event, please account for enough set up time in your rental agreement, as we do not permit access outside of contracted hours.

CELEBRATION DECORATION INFORMATION:

No tape, nails, thumbtacks, command strips, etc. are to be placed on the Pavilion walls, wainscoting, doors, windows, acoustic ceiling, or furniture. Piñatas are NOT allowed. No confetti or flower petals. All smoke emitting devices are strictly prohibited for use inside the Pavilion. Open flame candles must be contained within a 2” votive enclosure. Absolutely NO flames are permitted when Eagle County is under fire restrictions. It is the renter’s responsibility to check our local fire restrictions the day of their event.

CLEANING INFORMATION:

Cleaning of the Pavilion is done for a mandatory fee of $250. Lessee is NOT to put away tables and chairs. Trash bags are provided in the kitchen. Renters are responsible for removing their celebration trash from the premises, including all decorations and trash on the exterior; porch, pond, lawn, and parking lot and then deposited in the dumpster. Please make sure the dumpster enclosure doors are closed and locked after use due to wildlife concerns. The District is not responsible for equipment and/or personal items left behind after celebrations are held at the Pavilion.

LIQUOR LICENSE INFORMATION:

You only need to acquire a liquor license if the event will have a cash bar or will be charging people to come to a celebration where alcohol is being served. Call Eagle County Clerk and Recorder’s office at 970-328-8718 for more information. Please note this will take at least 30 days to acquire.

PARKING INFORMATION:

EagleVail Pavilion has 48 parking spaces. Overflow parking is available on Eagle Road if guests park on the northside of the road (the I-70 side) with vehicles facing west. It is highly encouraged to call the Eagle County Sheriff’s office if you think that you will require overflow parking. EagleVail Metropolitan District does not want any person driving while under the influence. Pavilion guests are allowed to park overnight, but their cars must be moved by 9am the next day. Vehicles left in the lot past midnight the following day will be booted. EagleVail is not responsible for ticketed or booted vehicles.

NOISE ORDINANCE INFORMATION:

EagleVail Metropolitan District does have a noise ordinance that begins at 10pm. Therefore, all music and noise must cease at 10pm.

VENDOR INFORMATION:

EagleVail Pavilion does not supply any items other than the building, chairs, and tables. The EagleVail Pavilion does not provide event or day of coordinators. Renters are welcome to have any vendors cover their celebration needs such as planners, coordinators, linens, catering, entertainment, photography, etc.
